

During a lot of the time I have spent on researching Robert C. Moore I came across this article by Laura Werner. Robert Moore and Ernie Lieb . Enjoy Ed Mathna

Remembering Ernie

by Laura Werner

Mr. Jamison Wymer posted this video in Facebook that I would like to share with you here. Bill Wallace reminds me so much of Ernie Lieb in his enthusiasm, energy, and pure enjoyment of karate! Watch and enjoy!

A little insight on tournament kicking from Champion and Master Mr. Bill "Superfoot" Wallace.

.... a blast from the past ...

This is an early picture of Mr. Lieb during competition at an Ed Sell tournament in Detroit Michigan in 1967. Mr. Lieb (on the right) was fighting a tough Midwest opponent named Robert Moore. The referee on the left was Jim McClain. The center referee (wearing gray) was Mr. Kennedy. Both were black belts in the United States Karate Association (USKA).

At this tournament, Mr. Lieb defeated Wally Slocki and Ted Martin from Canada, and Bill Wallace for the Grand Championship. This is just one of the many tournaments Mr. Lieb fought in, and won, against many top ranked black belt competitors of the day.
